Question 2: Teaming

Based on what I know of this person's performance, I would want this person on my team.

As you consider your response, think about how they get their work done, both individually and in a team context. Behaviors to consider include professionalism, reliability, collaboration, and responsiveness. Your assessment should consider how you would differentiate this person's performance against others and not take into account future need for this person's technical skills or the need for team continuity.
